At the London Exhibition of 1851, Mr. Frodsham's At the London Exhibition of 1891, Mr. Frodsham, contribution was noticed as bearing the stamp of peculiar merit, and being the flower of the English school.—In recognition of the excellence of the principle of hit time-keepers, the Brifish Government has awarded Mr Frodsham the sum of £3,170.

Mr. Frodsham, after a great number of experiments came to the conclusion that the only way to improve the watch was by adopting the proportions of the Marine Chronometer, its tests and adjustments;—this Mr. Frodand more accurate than any heretofore produced.

As a pecuriar advantage, there is no danger of stopping under the most violent motion, either in the cars, on horseback, or in any vehicle.

In over one hundred instances these watches have stood the test of actual daily noting, and have exhibited as a result, a rate equal in regularity to the best Marine Chronometers. In several instances, their performance at sea has been superior to the Chronometer.

To those who reside on the line of rallroads, or whose avocations taking them frequently in the cars, make a perfect timekeeper less of a luxury than a necessity, these Watches are recommended with the most complete confidence.

with Brown, Esq., a distinguished engineer of Ohio, writes of these watches: "Finally, from what I have known of Frodsham's Watches, I am strongly impressed with the idea that they are a decided improvement on all other time-pieces, and were they set in gimbals, and used with some care, I think their performance would equal that of Mr. Frodsham's celebrated Box Chronometer, and would answer the same ourpose for determining longitudes."

Boston, Dec. 1, 1856.

Messrs. Willard & Son—Gents: The gold watch, Chas. Frodsham, No. 7,166, I purchased of you, has performed with wonderful accuracy. During the three years I have owned it, it has never been one minute from the true time, and for one period of nine months its variation was less than two seconds. I never supposed a pocket watch capable of such perfection of time. Yours, truly, PROVIDENCE, Dec. 17, 1857. PROVIDENCE, Dec. 17, 1857.

Messrs. S. Willard & Son—Gentlemen: I take much satisfaction in bearing testimony to the extraordinary performance of the watch I purchased of you, made by Chas Feodsham, of London, No. 7,696.

During the two years I have worn it, I have never known it to be one minute in error, and for part of the time its accuracy has been so remarkable that I should hardly have believed it had it been told me by another person. By my record, the watch exhibits the following re

1857, December 18, slow 35 seconds, 1858, January 19, " 34 " 1858, February 12, " 30 " 1858, March 15, " 38 " 1558, April 26, " 30 " 1858, May 31, " 34 "

Thus showing from actual noting a variation of five econds in as many months. I may also mention that I have never favored the watch in any way, but have used the state of th ermance is marvellous. G. W. HALLETT.

Tax-Payers Only are Voters. Those who want to vote at the April election nust pay their poll tax before the 14th day of this nonth. The Know Nothings, for the purpose of buying enough votes, by paying taxes, to carry elections, got the odious law through our Legislature which disfranchises every man who don't pay his tithe twenty days before the city election Let every Democrat disappoint the originators of this infamous law by paying his poll tax at once. The tax is only $1 50 per head, and if any man is too poor to pay it, let him call on his neighbor for help. There are hundreds of generous Democrats in this city who will not permit a poor man to be disfranchised because he can't pay $1 50, as do his rulers, whom the Journal calls the elite of Democratic Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Democrats of the Fifth and Sixth Wards, on Wednesday evening, (March 9th,) in the City Court Room. A full attendance is expected. By order of the committee

THE PENALTY OF ADULTERY .- There is a great nconsistency in public opinion on some matters. Nineteen out of every twenty in the community seem to justify the action of Sickles in attacking and killing an unarmed and unwarned man, for having heen guilty of adultery with his wife. Yet if a law were proposed that should make the rime which Key committed punishable even by imprisonment in the penitentiary, how many of these same justifiers would be the first to cry out against it? According to modern ethics, the rime of adultery is so monstrous as to justify deliberate assassination, and yet no law with adequate penalties is enacted for its suppression, and no such law would probably receive half a dozen votes in any legislature in the United States. One thing is certain, that both of these positions can't be right. If Sickles was justifiable in killing Key, there ought to be a law which would have legally punished Key's offense with death, or at least with imprisonment in the penitentiary. MISS SOPRIE WERNER .- About two weeks sinc we were invited to be present at a private performance of this young lady upon the piano forte. We were most agreeably surprised at the decidedly superior style of her daily about my usual occupations.

Lest I may be accused of exaggeration, I will not express the high estimation in which I hold these watches; the author, which are rarely combined in one person; and what adds to the meritorious character of the performance, is the fact that the young lady in question is but eleven years of age. Her father, Mr. Fr. Werner, and also her mother, are well known in Cincinnati circles as finished performers, the former being one of the very best oupils of the famous Chopin of Paris. We understand that Miss Sophie will give a concert in this city on next Thursday evening, assisted by a corps of distinguished amateurs and the Orpheus Society, and we can assure our readers that those who attend will enjoy a feast of music, of which it is seldom our privilege to partake.

who says he resides in Grayson county, Ky., has been passing counterfeit $20 bills on the Bank of Louisville, in Cincinnati. So perfect is the resemblance to the genuine, some of the brokers were imposed on. When taken into custody, he claimed that he took the stuff for good money .-The bills are dated in 1852, and bear the name of Joshua B. Bowles as President. The bills may be detected by the fact that the top of the letters 'vi" in Louisville, and "we" in twenty, are connected together. A female figure with a raised sickle in the right hand, occupies each end of the bills. In the vignette a man sits on a mule in front of a farm house, and a close observer will discover a white spot on the tail of the animal .-The bills are well calculated to deceive, but may be detected by the marks which we have pointed

A Suggestion as to Dueling and Adultery .-Some years ago, in the excitement which followed the Graves and Cilley duel, Congress passed a very stringent law prohibiting dueling in the District, the effect of which has been in a great measure to repress the practice there. Wouldn't it be well just now, that the public mind is occupied with the Key and Sickles tragedy, for Congress to pass a similar law upon the subject of adultery in the District? Place the adulterer and the duelist upon the same footing, and perhaps such lia- tail price fully 121/c. sons as that of Key and Mrs. Sickles will hereafter end as duels now do, in a killing correspondence, and nothing else. The experiment is worth trying. This morning, (Tuesday,) at 10 o'clock, Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. will sell for cash, at their auction rooms, a large invoice of spring and summer dry goods, carpet bags, umbrellas, men's wemen's, and misses' boots and shoes, with a variety of notions and furnishing goods; a large line of ladies', gents', and children's cotton hosiery, received since last sale, will be sold .-The very special attention of country buyers is called to this sale.

Hopkins county, Ky., writes us that Mrs. Herrin, wife of A. B. Herrin, a wealthy citizen of that county, has eloped with one Conway, a man of bad character. Added to wealth, she was possess ed of accomplishments, and was very handsome. No reason is assigned for the strange freak.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS .- We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from the Hon. H. C. Burnett and the Hon. Samuel O. Peyton, who are on their way home. These gentlemen were noble members of the Congress that has just closed, and we hope that their constituents will send them back

We learn from a correspondent, that on March 2d, near White Hall, Madison county, Ky., Jas. Maupin, a youth of 15 years, shot his cousin, the mose of one of the belligerents.

Facts from a Personal Witness of the Hawesville Tragedy.

A gentleman just from Hawesville, and who ritnessed the whole transaction which terminated in the assassination of Lowe, informs us that the opinion we express in another article on the subject of the coat of mail is correct. The whole story is an unmitigated lie, and known to

When Lowe came out of the widow's house and gave up his arms, it was upon a solemn pledge of the word of honor of his assailants that he should not be molested. He had hardly started for the court house, however, before a renewed attack was made upon him, and repeated shots fired. He would then have been killed but for the interference of A. M. Mayo, himself a personal enemy of Lowe's, but who had too many of the said to Lowe that it was reported he was wearing a coat of mail. Lowe denounced the charge as false, and invited an examination. The examination was made publicly, and the falsehood of the statement demonstrated, and this fact was proved before the Grand Jury.

We learn another fact from the same source. that places Judge Stewart in no enviable light .them from him, and in less than half an hour afterwards the jailer was compelled to open the jail door to admit the assassins. Why did not Judge Stewart keep the keys, as he had promised, instead of giving them to an ignorant jailer to be bullied by the assassins?

We learn further that Withrow, one of the asassins, was indicted for getting in an improper way the money of a drunken man, and that it was through Lowe's instrumentality that the indictment was found. It stood for trial at the resent term, but the indictment has been quashed since Lowe's death, for some real or pretended informality upon its face. This too needs ex planation.

We learn, also, that the report of the Grand Jury was not their voluntary act, but was forced from them by the assassins. We do not know that this fact places them in any better attitude before the country.

The whole atrocious villainy has been done by me eight or ten persons, who have made use of the Maxwell difficulty to wreak their own cowardly vengeance upon Lowe for past difficulties which they had not the manly courage to meet him singly upon. Many of the citizens of Hawesville either stood cowardly by, afraid to raise voice or hand against the sickening brutality of the assassins, or fled from the town. It is not a case of misled public excitement .-

It is nothing of the kind. It is simply a town onquered by a gang of cowardly assassins. Nine out of ten of the citizens would vote to hang the miscreants to-morrow if they dared .-

Heaven help such a community. We are informed that a gay and gallant member of our bar disclaims any connection with the advertisement in the Journal headed 'Caution to Young Ladies," and signed M. S. F., the initials of the Colonel's name. Knowing the colonel to be a gay and ardent aspirant for hymenial honors, we hope that no one thought he was the man. His communications to the fair sex are upon guilt paper highly perfumed, and nclosed with Cupid seals. He would not think of making a pewspaper fuss about his wooings

INDECENT .- A man who answers to the name of A. Hassan, was committed to prison yesterday, for indecent conduct towards a little girl, aged only 10 years. He was subsequently released on bail, and his case will be investigated this morning. If he was guilty of conduct as represented to us, he ought to be hung. The examination will show, however, his innocence or guilt.

coundrels Withrow and Davidson, who assassinaed Thomas S. Lowe, in the Hawesville jail, used he pistols of the unfortunate man who fell a vicim to their relentless and savage atrocity. In the street fight which occurred the day be ore the assassination, it is said no less than thir. ty-five holes were shot in his clothes.

THE HAWESVILLE MURRER -It is stated that the m-Nicholasite elite will take a story or two rom the heels of their polished boots, it will as sist them very much in getting down to a level with the people. If the suggestion is carried out, we suppose the popular cry will be come it, instead of go it boots. How would Brother Bullock look coming it boots down a story or two?

[From the New Orleans Delta.] Terrible Disaster of the Princess.

The Kate Dale had passed, and was proceeding down the river at some distance, but in sight of the Princess, when suddenly a loud report, as of the discharge of a whole battery of heavy artil-lery, was heard, producing a perceptible shock lery, was heard, producing a perceptible shock and filling the air with smoke and fragments.— All rushed on deck, and looking toward the Prin-cess, saw that she was the victim of this terrible that places Judge Stewart in no enviable light.—

Judge Stewart had possession of the keys of the jail; he had pledged himself, in a public speech to the citizens, to keep them; yet, in despite of this pledge, he absolutely forced the jailer to take them from him, and in less than half an hour afdiately ordered his boat to round to and steer to ward the Princess.
As soon as she neared the scene, the horrors of

As soon as she neared the scene, the horrors of the disaster came in full view. Language is ut-terly inadequate to depict the heart-rending features of the dismal tragedy. The force of the explosion had thrown the bow of the Princess on the bank; the flames were rapidly consuming the wreck, cutting off the approach to the bank, and subjecting to further tortures the maimed and helplesss: the water was alive with the woulded helplesss: the water was alive with the wounded and unhurt—some swimming, others clinging to bales of cotton and other floating objects, and all preferring its chances to the more merciless fury of the other element.

Some time—at least an hour—had elapsed be-fore the Kate Dale had reached the scene, and oh! what an hour was that! The air was filled with pitcous screams and groans, cries for help, and screams of agony; the shrill tones of women mingling with the hoarse voices of men. Prompt measures were taken by all on board the Kate Dale to afford every aid in their power to the wounded, and to rescue those in the river. Fortunately, there were two physicians on board the Kate Dale, their names Bulger and Blaffen, whose services were most kindly and efficiently rendered to the wounded. rendered to the wounded.

Seventy or eighty persons from the Princess were taken on board of the Kate Dale. The news of the disaster having reached Baton Rouge, physicians were dispatched, who arrived in time to render their aid. Soon the McRae and the Peerless arrived, and united with the Kate Dale in rescuing the passengers of the Princess—each re-ceiving a number of them, who were carried to Baton Rouge. After awhile, the Natchez also came up, and a number of the passengers were taken by her, among whom was the first clerk, James Izod, who was badly scalded, and Mr. Joseph Clark, second clerk, also badly scalded. The Kate Dale had some thirty of the passen gers and crew, who were uninjured, put on the steamer Vixen, and after doing all that was possi-ble for the relief of the unfortunate steamer, those two boats proceeded on their way to the city, and arrived here about two o'clock yesterday after-noon. We were among the first on board of the

The scene presented in the cabin of that steam r beggars all description. On the floor lay some fleen badly wounded; five of them taken on oard had already found relief in death. Some of the wounded rolled in agony, uttering the most of the wounded rolled in agony, uttering the most sickening groans, others lay motionless, helpless, and apparently paralyzed, and all presented that blackened, ghastly and horrible aspect of the burnt and scalded—the most revolting aspect in which the human form can be presented. Every relief which the case demanded was extended to the unfortunates. Some were taken to the hos pitals, others to their own residences and the

Several of the passengers above enumerated de sire mention of and a return of their thanks to Wm. Campbell, the first steward of the Princess, for the noble heroism and courage with which he acted in rescuing several persons, and the untir-ing exertions manifested toward the sufferers.— One gentleman, Mr. Higgins, in particular, says that no one ever exhibited a more daring spirit and greater coolness in danger, united with almost and greater coolness in danger, united with almost a woman's tenderness. He deserves and is ten-dered the most heartfelt thanks of the rescued. The steamer Vixen also brought down the fol-owing passengers, who were transferred from the Kate Dale: Mr. Loring and son; Dr. J. P. Burke, Tenn.; A. L. Hare; J. W. Blanks; Messrs. Sprague and Stevenson, and twenty-five of the crew, all of whom are uninjured.

As a number of persons were picked up while clinging to bales of cotton, and taken to the opposite shore, hope was expressed that among them were the acting captain, Wm. L. Jackson, and Mr. John Clark, assistant clerk; but the ar-rival of the Empress, Capt. Leyden, on yesterday oon, made it too certain that they were the lost. The Empress brought down some twenty persons, among who n were six or eight wounded firemen, all colored but one. A white man, whose name we could not ascertain, died on the passage. The Natchez took a large number of persons back to the points from which they embarked, and also a number of wounded were carried to Baton Rouge.

The Princess was one of the most splendid boats on the river, having been built at Cincinnati in 1835, and enjoyed a reputation for safety never yet gained by any other steamer—a confidence which rendered the shock greater. Her officers have always been known as among the most careful men on the river, and from the fact that only ful men on the river, and from the fact that only one boiler exploded, it is thought that there must have been a flaw impossible for the most experienced eye to detect. She was commanded by Capt. Wm. C. Wilson, who, fortunately for himself and family, was detained in this city and did not go up on her.

The Princess was owned as follows: One-half by Capt. C. Wilson, three-eights by Capt. Truman C. Holmes, and the remaining eighth by Mr. James Izod, the first clerk. During the past summer she had been repaired at a cost of $80,000, and over $900 were spent in repairing boilers.

LATEST FROM THE SCENE OF THE PRINCESS EXPLO-BATON ROUGE, Feb. 28-9 P. M .- It is impossible to give the full particulars of the terrible disaster to the steamer Princess, which has spread such gloom over our community.

Those who witnessed the explosion, uninjured, describe it as appalling in the extreme.

No one knows the real cause of the explosion. There are a thousand and one reports in regard to

INCIDENTS OF THE EXPLOSION. At the time of the explosion Messrs. Canonge, Bannister, Laville and Huard, were sitting in the gentlemen's cabin, immediately over the boilers, conversing together. Mr. Canonge, together with the chair in which he was sitting, was thrown by the explosion back into the ladies' cabin unhurt, and found himself landed squarely sitting in the same chair. (Rather a tough story.)

Mrs. Morton, who was saved, had a son with her about two years of age, who was picked up some about two years of age, who was picked up some nine miles from the scene of the disaster, below the wreck, and found to be entirely uninjured.

The despair and gloom which pervade our community cannot be described. Among the saved there were probably one hundred more or less wounded. Many of these have since died at the various places to which they have been carried, but it is impossible to get a full and correct list of the city.

The alarm of fire, on yesterday afternoon, was caused by the candle factory of Armstrong & Co., at the upper end of Main street, taking fire. It was extinguished without the aid of the engines.

The Pinces had more passengers on beard than she was ever known to carry before.

The pilot, George H. Case, who was at the wheel, was thrown into the water. He arrived here last evening on the steamer Wm. M. Mr. Editor: A shooting affair occurred at
New Madrid yesterday, between to men, named Chriswell and Moore, which resulted in the death f the latter. Chriswell had married the mother f Moore's wife, and there had been unfriendly feelings between the two for some time, on ac-count of the distribution of some family prop-

and was ordered out by Chriswell. He refused to go out of the house, saying that he would leave when he chose to. Chriswell threatened to out him out, which Moore dared him to do.— Chriswell took hold of him to put him out, when he drew a pistol and shot Chriswell through the arm. The latter then drew a pistol and shot Moore, killing him instantly. Chriswell is described as a desperate character.

POLICE COURT.

GEORGE W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE. Monday, March 7, 1859. Assault.--W. H. Watts, Wesley Evans, and

Assault.--W. H. Watts, Wesley Evans, and Jas. Wilson were arraigned for assault on M. Rentlinger. The witness stated he had some difference as to the payment of $65 which Watts' demanded of him, and which lawyer Green told him not to pay, but send Constable Webb to him, and he would pay it. Watts went to the house of Rentlinger, and demanding the money, the witness pushed him out of the huose. Watts then got an axe, and Rentlinger got his double barrel gun to defend himself, but his wife clung around his neck and prevented him using his gun. While in this position, Evans got hold of the gun, and struck witness and knocked him down. Evans also said he would like to "kill him." The witness subsequently met Dr. Evans, and said to him, if he would like to try his strength, he would fight him any way and prove to the Dr. he was no coward. The Judge refused to hear further testimony, and said all the parties should answer for a riot before the grand jury. At the request of the consul for Evans and Wilson, who wanted to prove they didn't go there with Watts, the case was re-opened.

A witness testified that as Rentlinger put Watts out, the other men, who had been sitting on some lumber inside of the yard of complainant, rushed up to assist Watts, who picked up a stick on some lumber inside of the yard of complainant, rushed up to assist Watts, who picked up a stick first and then took the axe, and said it would do better. All the men got hold of Rentlinger to take the gun away from the latter. The witness then went and got a watchman, and his appearance on the scene of action scaused the two to desist. Dr. Evans was admitted to testify, and said he and Wilson did not go there with Watts, but he and Wisson did not go there with Watts, but were merely waiting for him to come out; and that he interfered only to prevent Rentlinger from shooting some one. The Commonwealth did not hold it a riot, nor did the prosecution think Watts or Wilson committed an assault. The Court could accide as to Evans' offense. The attorney for Rentlinger thought all of the men had been guilty of an offense against the law. The Judge, on the conclusion of the testimony, ordered the entire party to give bail in $100, to answer a misdemeanor.

It appears that Gen'l Fricke, a German shoemaker, hving on Monroe street, took a sister of his wife to his house on account of sickness, about a year ago. On Wednesday last, that sick woman was delivered of a healthy male that sick woman was delivered of a healthy male child, which the father, Frieke, immediately took away, tied a cord areund its neck and threw it in-to the hog pen. Mrs. Fricke, who had no suspicion whatever in regard to the circumstances of her sister, and who had been sent off upon some errand, heard, on her return, strange sounds in the hog pen, as did a neighbor; but lacking themselves courage to investigate the matter, they in-formed Fricke, who immediately rushed out, took the child, stopped its cries by stabbing it with a knife so as to cut not only the blood vessel of the neck, but to sever also the spine and the spinal marrow, and then the heartless father threw his widaurri seemed very sore on the subject of his late defeat by Miramon, and endeavored to throw the blame on Mr. Jordan, an Englishman who served as Colonel of the artillery, and was second in command under him. STARTLING THEORY-GOLD IN PROCESS OF FOR-MATION .- A correspondent of the San Francisco

National, writing from the mines, relates the following singular incident: The continuous formation of gold in this region is not unfrequently maintained by men who have practical observance of results which favor such assumption. Recently a common axe was dugup, having probably lain four or five years in the red earth which is common to this region, and its entire surface exhibited fine gold deposited upon it—the iron was, of course, very much rust-ed. It is asserted by able analytical chemists, that gold can be obtained from all the earth and rocks found within the gold belt. The future of rocks found within the gold best. The future of California as a mineral country is no longer problematical; the exhausting of placers only is removed to a long period, while the development of gold in so many of the geological formations, seems to determine the fact that it is only a question of time when science will be the assistant to the present rude methods, and the operations be conducted upon principles that are positive in their results.

Going to Meet a Lover and Finding Mim a Corre.—A young lady, a Miss T., from N. Y., passed through Milwaukie one day last week, on her way to St. Paul, to meet her betrothed and fulfill her engagement to be married. Between Hastings and St. Paul, the La Crosse Republican says she met the downward stage which had the corpse of her intended husband. This she did not learn until she arrived at St. Paul, where she hired a livery and started back to overtake the stage. She overhauled the stage at Wabashaw, and took charge of the remains of her lover. She passed through that city last Thursday night on her way home. She was a brave girl, and bore the crushing sorrow by having a faithful hope in the future. The Republican says the livery man of St. Paul only charged $50 for taking her to Wabashaw. Mr. Smith has been in the habit of buying swill at the various hotels. At one of them, it appears, the servants had been using phosphorus for the purpose of killing roaches, with which the house was infested. After they had done with it, they threw it into the swill barrels, which were emptied by Mr. S. After some of the hogs died, the contents of the stomach of one of them was analized by Dr. S. P. The Hawesville Tragedy - The Grand Jury's

In times gone by the name of Kentuckian has been justly regarded as a synonym for all that is sins in cutting the throats of Lowe's infant chilbrave and chivalrous in our nature. Peaceable dren. Those children may become dangerou and order-loving citizens could indeed find much too much, to censure in the deeds of violence which from time to time stained with blood the | the trembling cravens who murdered their father soil of our State; but those deeds were unstained by the taint of cowardice. Men met their foes do it now than when they grow up. warned and armed-man to man, and upon equal footing; and when the fight was over, they would as soon have struck a woman in the travail of child-birth as raised a hand against a disarmed Jesse S. Taylor. For eight months he tried, by and wounded antagonist.

But all this seems to be passing away. Not the deeds of blood, not the scenes of violence and outrage-these are as rife as ever-but the bravery, the chivalry, that once marked and in some degree redeemed such deeds-this it is that seems to belong to a past age.

Now cowardice is offered as a justification for assassination. A grand jury of the country, upon their oaths, solemnly justify the murder of an unarmed, defenseless, wounded man, in jail, upon the word to indicate a time at which they could meet. ground that the miserable cowards who perpetra. A copy of both communications are here filed as part of this report. That in a short time afterwards the said Lowe, during the sitting of the court, took his position in the street, in sight and hearing of the Grand Jury room, in front of the Clerk's office, exhibiting two large pistols, and in a loud voice denounced Maxwell in unmeasured terms, and uttered a most horrible slan-

It seems before Lowe had thus taken his position a warrant for his arrest had been issued by the Police Judge of Hawsville, which was not executed, for the reason as stated by the officer, that Lowe resisted, and the persons whom he summoned refused to assist him to arrest him.— While Lowe was thus standing and making his proclamation the said Aldridge was seen with a number of guns half concealed standing some thirty or forty feet to the right of Lowe, and when Maxwell was seen coming up the street Lowe advanced a few steps with pistols in hand and fired, when he immediately ran to where Aldridge was standing with the guns, and, receiving one of the double-barreled guns, advanced again and shot in the direction of Maxwell and his friends. A number of shots were fired and Aldridge was true. The lie is palpable because the fact is namber of shots were fired, and Aldridge was seen to act with Lowe and to shoot several times, and in the battle he was killed and fell with a pistol in his hand. It was also in proof before the and in the battle he was killed and fell with a pistol in his hand. It was also in proof before the Jury that on Monday, the day before the fight, Lowe had upon his person a steel shirt, or coat of mail, which he stated he wore to prevent the bullets from entering his body. He was very slightly wounded. From the character of Lowe as proved before the Jury his menaces and threats, his preparations and demonstrations of violence, his open defiance to the law and its officers, and the active part taken by Aldridge, the Jury are unanimously of the opinion that Maxwell was in imminent peril, and also that the persons and lives of citizens living in the vicinity, well was in imminent peril, and also that the persons and lives of citizens living in the vicinity, as well as those in attendance upon Court, were put in jeopardy, and that the wounding of Lowe and the killing of Aldridge were excusable and justifiable on the principles of self-preservation. "In reference to the killing of Lowe on the next day, when he was unarmed and confined in jail, a difference of online exists in the Grend Lux."

Yes, hatred and vengeance would have been disday, when he was unarmed and confined in jail, a difererence of opinion exists in the Grand Jury. A majority of the jury, however, believe that the lives of the two persons by whom he was said to have been slain, were threatened by him, and would have been unsafe if he had been permitted to live, and that the same principles of self-preservation which justified the killing of Lowe. The Grand Jury unitedly deplore that so great provocation to violene existed in this county, and that blood has been shed in the very presence of justice. They hope sincerely that the bloody proceedings referred to may have a salutary effect upon the community—that the result may inculcate a desire to have the laws promptly administered, and impress upon those who disregard the rights of others, the certainty that in the judgment of all good men, the law is magnified when he who without right, appeals to the sword is by armed, but not cowardice! The miserable crahe was wholly defenseless—as much so as if his hands and feet had been bound in triple chainsof Aldridge were applicable to the killing of Lowe." And then they express the hope "that the bloody proceedings referred to may have a he who without right, appeals to the sword is by the sword destroyed. They all regret that the law should have been inadequate to remedy the law should have been inadequate to remedy the existing evil. It is plain the law must protect men or they will protect themselves, and this jury seriously fear that unless the law is made to act more rigorously, force will assume the sceptre, and the rights of the citizens be determined by the strong arm of violence. They also hope that those who assumed the redress of their own and the wrongs of the public, will not so act in removing a public terror, as to become a substitute for the same in the community, and that a love of law and order may from this day distinguish and redeem the citizens of Hancock county.

"WILLIAM ADAMS, SR., Foreman."

The communications referred to in the report above, and made part of said report, are as follows, up to the execrations they so richly merit.

Mr. Cicero Maxwell.—Sir: Because you denounced me as a d—d juggler and a d—d tool of Jesse S. Taylor, and because I afterwards wrote a very peaceable note remonstrating against your course towards me, the object of which was to procure a peaceable settlement at your hands, which note you refused to receive, I threatened to horsewhip you. I was driven to the making of this threat because by your refusal to receive my note you placed me beyond the pale of gentlemanly consideration, and cut me off from all channels of communication in use among gentlemen. of communication in use among gentlemen.—
Through eight months and one day I have earnestly sought an amicable settlement of this matter, and have made four earnest efforts to obtain a peaceable settlement with you. Last night a negotiation between us for an amicable settlement was broken up on account of grown negotiation between us for an amicable set-tlement was broken up on account of your unjust demands relative to the withdrawal of my threat to horsewhip you. MIRACULOUS VERMIN DESTROYER.

POR THE DESTRUCTION OF RATS. MICE, MOLES, Bugs, Roaches, Fleas, Mosquitoes, Moths, Garden Insects, Ants, etc.

The chemical preparations known under the above title for the last 22 years throughout Europe, where they have met with a triumphant success, have acquired for their inventor and manufacturer a world-wide celebrity attested by the Emperors of Russia, France, Austria, the Queen of England, the Kings of Belgium, Holland, Naples, Bavaria, Saxony, etc.; and in America their efficiency has been indorsed by the Directors of Public Institutions, and the approval of numerous private citizens, and that they are the only remedies in the world sure to exterminate all kinds of vermin.

Meyer's Miraculous Preparations destroy the unwelcome intruders without mercy, and never fail. His Arthas brought death to millions of them in the world, and from this day the watchword of all housekeepers, merchants, ship owners, and husbandmen will be "No more vermin."

Strike

ELIZABETHPORT, PA., March 7.—About one hundred laborers employed on the coal docks here by the Delaware, Lockawanna and Western Railroad struck for higher wages last week. A party of men were then brought from New York to fill their places, but owing to the threats made they were afraid to land from the steamboat. One hundred men are expected here this morning from Scranton. The laborers are in a state of great excitement, and a serious riot is apprehended on the arrival of the train. The priest of the Catholic Church is endeavoring to receive them.

Catholic Church is endeavoring to pacify them.

SECOND DISPATCH.—The train from Scranton has formed in a line amid much excitement, and marched to the coal docks. The priest is doing all he can to avoid a collision, but it seems inevitable as soon as the new men commence to work.

THIRD DISPATCH-1:30, P. M .- The new men went to work, when those in the strike commenced threwing coal, but were finally driven off. The LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDERS, Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed-Bugs, Fleas Anis Moths, and all pests of the vermin kind.

The importance of a reliable article of this kind is in In warm weather all nature teems with nnoying foes. This powder is the only article ever dis overed which will exterminate them. A company o otanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while midst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects light g upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead.

this fact was made use of to guard their night camps orm these intruders. Quantities of the plant were rought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a podered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of a and climate. McLean's Volcamic Oil Liniment.
The best Liniment in the world for man or beast.
Another remarkable cure performed by McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. Read for yourselves:
Thomas Ford, a blacksmith, living near Cassavenue, on Tenth street, had a horrible running sore on his foot. He tried various Liniments, Salves, &c., but could do it no good. He despaired of ever being able to work at his foot; and by one small bottle of McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment, he is now perfectly cured.
Rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, bruises, sprains, stiffness in the joints or muscles, swellings, sore throat, earache or toothache, wounds, fresh cuts, sores, burns, scalds, pains, &c., yield to the "magio" influence of this wonderful Liniment.
For Horses and Cattle it is an infallible remedy for chafes, galls, scratches, cracked heels, lameness, spavins swenty, splint, fistula, bruises, swellings, wounds, rattle, make bites, and various other diseases which animals are liable to from injuries or accidents.

Every Country Merchant should obtain a supply of McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. It sells rapidly, because it slways cures.
A liberal discount will be made to merchants who buy to'sell again.

FURTHER BY THE EUROPA. New York, March 7.—It is said that the inten-tions of the French Emperor are decidedly war ike.

The correspondence from France and Vienna to the London papers, abounds in rumors of warlike preparations. On the other hand, the English army estimates show a reduction in the home and colonial forces of 7,500 men, and an inforce is 229,000 men, of which 106,000 are for India. The reduction in the home forces is considered as indicative of the Government's faith in the maintenance of peace.
Rumors prevail of ministerial changes, include ing the retirement of the Lord Chancellor, Sir E. Lytton, and General Peal.
